A) READING

A. Before you read, answer the questions.

1. Write the names of the celebrities in the pictures.
.....

2. Write three adjectives that describes them best.
.....

STARS WANT TO SAVE THE WORLD

Hollywood stars are not just beautiful and talented, they are generous, too. In fact, most stars do some sort of work for charity. Today, lots of actors, singers and celebrities, like Angelina Jolie, George Clooney, Matt Damon, Bono and Scarlett Johansson do charity work. But the concept of celebrities trying to help others is not new. The actress Audrey Hepburn, who was in the film My Fair Lady, did work for UNICEF in the 1950's. She was a UNICEF Goodwill Ambassador from 1988 until her death in 1993.

CHARITY WORK

In Hollywood, it is fashionable to be concerned about the world and the environment. When a charity is connected to a star, it gets publicity. People become interested and they want to help: Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt are often in the news because of their work for charity. In 2006, when Jolie was expecting her baby, she let People magazine print photos in exchange for a donation to a charity in Haiti. 'We cannot ignore the fact that millions of people are suffering. I want to help', says Jolie. Here are some actors and singers who are trying to make the world a better place.

LEONARDO DI CAPRIO

Di Caprio is a determined environmentalist. In 2007, he made a documentary, 11th hour, about the environment crisis caused by human actions. He flies in commercial planes and not private jets which use more fuel. He thinks that global warming is the biggest problem for humanity.

GEORGE CLOONEY AND MATT DAMON

George Clooney, Matt Damon and Brad Pitt raised 5 million dollars for Darfur crisis during the premiere of Ocean's thirteen at the Cannes Festival.

Now, Clooney wants every film festival to be a charity event. After Matt Damon saw extreme poverty in Zambia and South Africa, he wanted to help other parts of Africa, too. He made a documentary called Running the Sahara to get support for clean water programs in Africa.

ANGELINA JOLIE

Angelina Jolie saw humanitarian crises when she was filming Tomb Raider in Cambodia in 2000. When Jolie is on a mission, she lives in the same way as other voluntary workers. Not very comfortable for a Hollywood star! Jolie says that stars earn too much money. 'I earn so much. It's crazy' she says. She gives a third of her money to charity.
