Last summer, Brian spent her holiday together with her parents and her little sister Ann. They went to the coast. Brian's family had a nice little holiday home near the coast. The weather was fine and the children went swimming every day. One day, Brian and Ann took a boat from the beach to a small island. It was a nice small rowing boat. While they were rowing along the coastline, a strong wind caught the boat and took it out to the open sea. Brian wanted to row back, but he lost his balance and fell into the water. Ann started to cry and didn't know what to do. Brian couldn't swim! They shouted: "Help! Help! Brian woke up suddenly. He saw water and dolphins all around. "How deep!" he thought. Brian wanted to swim, but he couldn't.

His leg was caught in seaweed! Just then, a dolphin quickly came to rescue him. The dolphin took Brian on its mouth and took him up to the boat. It made a loud noise and swam away. "Did you see that! That dolphin saved your life!" shouted Ann when Brian was back in their boat. "I can't believe it", said Brian. And they rowed back to the beach as fast as they could.
