Introduction

Here is a story-based worksheet to help students practice the present simple vs. the present continuous.

Procedure

Give each student a copy of the two-page worksheet.

Students begin by reading the first part of the story and then answering questions about it using the present simple.

Exercise A - Answer key

1. They eat breakfast at the kitchen table.
2. She drives her sons to school.
3. She goes grocery shopping on Mondays.
4. They do their homework and then play games.
5. She goes to bed at 11 p.m.

Students then read the next part of the story and write present continuous questions for a set of answers.

Exercise B - Possible answers

1. What is Nicole putting in the dishwasher?
2. What is Nicole listening to?
3. Why is Nicole dancing?
4. What is Nicole thinking about?
5. Is the music playing loudly or softly?

Next, students complete the following part of the story with the present simple or present continuous form of the verbs in brackets.

Exercise C - Answer key

- |           |                |                   |                |
|-----------|----------------|-------------------|----------------|
| 1. makes  | 4. makes       | 7. isn't cleaning | 10. is staying |
| 2. spends | 5. are eating  | 8. goes           |                |
| 3. are    | 6. are resting | 9. isn't going    |                |

In the last exercise, students put words in the correct order to complete the story.

Part D - Answer key

1. It is now Monday afternoon. The power has gone out. The dishwasher and TV aren't working.
2. Nicole usually goes grocery shopping on Mondays, but she is staying home because her sons are sick.
3. Nicole usually washes the dishes in the dishwasher, but the power is out, so she is washing the dishes in the sink.
4. The children often watch TV when they are sick, but they aren't watching TV because it isn't working. It isn't a normal day.

A. Read the first part of the story and then answer the questions in the present simple.

Nicole is a stay-at-home mum with two young sons. Every day, she makes them breakfast, which they eat together at the kitchen table. After they eat breakfast, she drives her sons to school. When she comes home, she puts the dishes in the dishwasher and does the housework. On Mondays, she goes grocery shopping. After she picks up her sons from school, the sons do their homework and then play games. Afterwards, she cooks dinner and the sons set the table. The children go to bed at 9 p.m. After that, she watches TV with her husband. They go to bed at 11 p.m.
